

LOCAL AUTHORS SHELF POLICY

The Hershey Public Library takes pride in recognizing the literary effort of local authors by including their work in the library's collection and connecting them with local readers. The library has a Local Authors Shelf where library patrons can borrow works written by local authors.

Authors wishing to contribute books to the Local Authors Shelf must:

1. Hold a current Hershey Public Library Card.
2. Reside in Dauphin, Lancaster, Lebanon, Cumberland, or York counties. Priority will be given to authors who reside in Derry Township.
3. Complete a Local Author Submission Form and present it to the front desk along with a copy of the titles submitted for consideration.

Donation Guidelines:

- The library may accept one copy of each title the author wishes to submit. Authors may donate up to three titles per year.
- The library will only accept physical formats in new condition.
- Works with cassettes, CDs, or DVDs will not be accepted.
- All submissions must meet the library's selection criteria as outlined in the Collection Development Policy and shall be subject to the review and approval of the Library.

Some works, especially works of non-fiction, may not be considered without accompanying professional reviews.

If a local author's work is suggested for purchase through regular purchasing channels, the library will try to contact the author to determine if they are interested in donating a copy of their work to the Library. The Library reserves the right to purchase the works of local authors depending on local interest, widespread popularity, and professional reviews according to the Collection Development Policy.

The Library will acknowledge receipt of the author's work within 30 days. The author will normally receive notification regarding the library's decision within 90 days.

Books donated to the Local Author Shelf may become damaged or go missing and thus be removed from the collection. Authors will not be informed of this removal. A second donated copy may be accepted to replace a damaged or missing copy. Books accepted for the collection will be kept on the shelf for at least three years unless otherwise determined by the Library. After three years, the books may be removed to make room for newer works. Removed books will not be returned to authors. Instead, they will be given to the Library's Book Sale, donated to other non-profit agencies, or recycled if they are no longer in good condition.

Authors will be notified if their works are not selected for the Local Author Shelf collection and returned books will be made available for pick up at the front desk. Books accepted to the Local Author Shelf shall become the property of the Library, which has the prerogative to keep or dispose of the items as deemed appropriate by the Library. If the item is unclaimed by the author, it will be given to the Friends of the Hershey Public Library for their upcoming book sale.

Books contributed to the Local Author Shelf shall become the property of the Hershey Public Library. The Library reserves the right to refuse any title, or remove any title without notice, at any time, for any reason.

All authors participating in the Local Author Shelf program agree to and shall indemnify, release and hold harmless the Hershey Public Library from any and all claims associated with the Library displaying, maintaining and/or lending out the books provided to the Library.

Author Programs

We are fortunate to have a considerable number of authors in our community. Though we would like to accommodate them all, we have limited time, space, and staff for programming. Programs for a single author are rare occurrences and are considered only when the book has received widespread recognition.

Due to limitations on staff time, we cannot discuss individual titles with authors.

Chocolate Town Book Festival

Each year, usually in October, the Hershey Public Library hosts the Chocolate Town Book Festival to showcase the work of local authors and introduce them to readers. Registration for this event opens in February and information on registering will be posted on social media pages for the event. Direct any questions to library@derrytownship.org.
